1. [ ] - GLC) Jay Sourwine, on the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called to say that [ ] was in touch with [ ] last night and reported to him this morning. [ ] told [ ] that he is interested in acquiring U.S. residence and would like to obtain employment here and do other things that could permit him to operate from a base in the United States. [ ] replied that he would be glad to help him to do all these things if the Agency had no objection. Sourwine said [ ] feels that he has good relations with the Agency and would do whatever the Agency wants him to do. Sourwine is not asking us to do anything at this point but said he was merely keeping us informed.

2. (Unclassified - GLC) Marion Ball, USIA Legislative Liaison, called regarding an inquiry which Senator George Murphy (R., Calif.) has received from a constituent and forwarded to USIA. This has to do with a broadcast the constituent claims to have heard from Moscow radio on 16 November. It was allegedly indicated in this broadcast that the 15 November moratorium was organized in Stockholm and was part of a world-wide effort. Mrs. Ball is trying to obtain a copy of the text of this broadcast. FBIS is sending her the closest thing they can find to it.

3. [ ] - GLC) Jay Sourwine called again to see how we were progressing in determining whether we wanted to take a position in the release of any or all of the [ ] testimony. He said unless we wanted it released he doubts that the Subcommittee will release any of it. He said he didn't want to prod us but that Senator Eastland is getting edgy about the cost to the Subcommittee for [ ] stay here. I told Sourwine I would check with our people but that I expected our review of the testimony would be completed shortly.

2. (Confidential - GLC) Advised Ed Braswell, on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, that the Agency's retirement bill had been passed by the House this morning. Braswell said he planned to talk with Senator Stennis this afternoon to see if he wanted to take the bill up at a Committee meeting this Thursday. If this is the case, Braswell expected it would be taken up in executive session but he would want standby witnesses from the Agency. He will be in touch with us as soon as he has something further on this.
